

Solutions for having many education options

- In the user Schema, it would be saved as arrays instead of a singular value and mandatory fields would be removed.
- 2. For the numerous amount of skills, we fetch them all using the backend API instead of hardcoding them. Users can also add a new skill through post. Divide everything into categories and fetch the relevant fields accordingly to those categories.